

POSTS DESERTED BY CABINET MEMBERS

With Two Exceptions All Are in Various Parts of Country on Campaign Work.

Only two members of the President's Cabinet, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Attorney General Gregory, are in Washington. The other eight are out on the stump making speeches in the last week of the campaign.

Secretary of State Bryan and Postmaster General Burleson are in the Middle West; Secretary Garrison made his first speech of the campaign at Trenton, N. J., last night, and is in Springfield, Mass., today; Secretary Daniels left last night for Missouri to aid the campaign in Champ Clark's State; Secretary Lane is speaking in his home State, California; Secretary Houston is in Chicago; Secretary Redfield is in New York for Gerard and Glynn, and Secretary Wilson is in his home State, Pennsylvania, aiding Palmer in his fight against Penrose.

Several assistant secretaries also are on the stump. Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Vrooman is in Illinois fighting Roger Sullivan, Democratic Senatorial candidate; Assistant Secretary of Commerce Sweet is in Michigan, which State he formerly represented in Congress. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt is preparing to go to New York to make speeches for Gerard, who defeated him in the primary, and Glynn, candidate for governor.

Secretary McAdoo has declined offers to take the stump, because of the press of work attendant upon the inauguration of the new banking system. Attorney General Gregory, the newest member of the Cabinet, has found work too pressing to think of politics.

SETTLEMENT OF OIL SEIZURES DUE TODAY

Complete settlement of differences between Great Britain and the United States over seizure of the three Standard Oil vessels, Brindilla, Plutaria, and John D. Rockefeller, is in sight today, following orders by Great Britain for release of the Brindilla at Halifax.

The State Department was advised that the release of the Plutaria in England will follow, probably today.

Assurances that the oil cargoes of the three seized vessels would not reach Germany or Austria, prompted Great Britain's action.

Officials pointed out today, however, that no "test" case has yet been made, either in an admiralty or prize court or diplomatically, of transfer of German vessels to American registry under the new ship registry law.

Treasury officials expect soon to follow suit in releasing the Ambassadors of Spring-Field of Great Britain regarding release of the oil steamers that American ships seized last week, and carefully indicate the ultimate destination of cargoes and ships to prevent suspicion and detention.

Law and Order to Be Major Sylvester's Theme

Major Richard Sylvester will talk on "Stories as Promoters of Law and Order" at the final meeting of the social culture study hour next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in the auditorium of Woodward & Lothrop's.

Police officers and their wives and children have been especially invited to hear Major Sylvester. The meeting has for its chief object the bringing about of closer relations between the police and parents. Several police captains will relate their experiences.

A noteworthy feature will be the telling of "Stories Terrestrial and Stories Celestial" by Mrs. William E. Andrews. At the meeting last Saturday Dr. M. E. Miller related the largest gathering of purity. Mrs. Louise Harding Earle presided, and told of her experience in social welfare work.

The audience at the story hours have been constantly growing, and the last one was the banner meeting of the series. It is expected that the largest gathering of all will assemble to hear Major Sylvester. Mrs. Earle says that all will be welcome.

Picture Exhibit to Help War Sufferers Delayed

Delayed in transmission, the two pictures which were to have been put on exhibition at the New Willard yesterday will not be available for display until later in the week. The pictures are a study from Rubens, and the other by L. E. Horace Vernet, are to be shown by the Countess Aurelia de Tonnay for the relief of widows and orphans of the allies.

The delay in transmitting the pictures to Washington is accounted for by difficulty in having them insured. The Rubens picture is from the famous "Descent from the Cross," recently removed from the cathedral in Antwerp. Vernet's work is "The Soldier's Farewell." Both are the property of Countess Tonnay. Photographic reproductions of the pictures will be sold by society girls while the exhibition is in progress.

A Foe to Tuberculosis

The Journal of the American Medical Association, in its issue of August 6, 1913, reviewed an article on "The Influence of Calcium Salts on Constitution and Health," said:

"The (the authors) report numbers of concrete instances in which patients gained in vitality and energy after taking calcium."

Doctors seem to agree that in tuberculosis and chronic throat and bronchial affections, lowered vitality and lost energy are conditions that must be overcome.

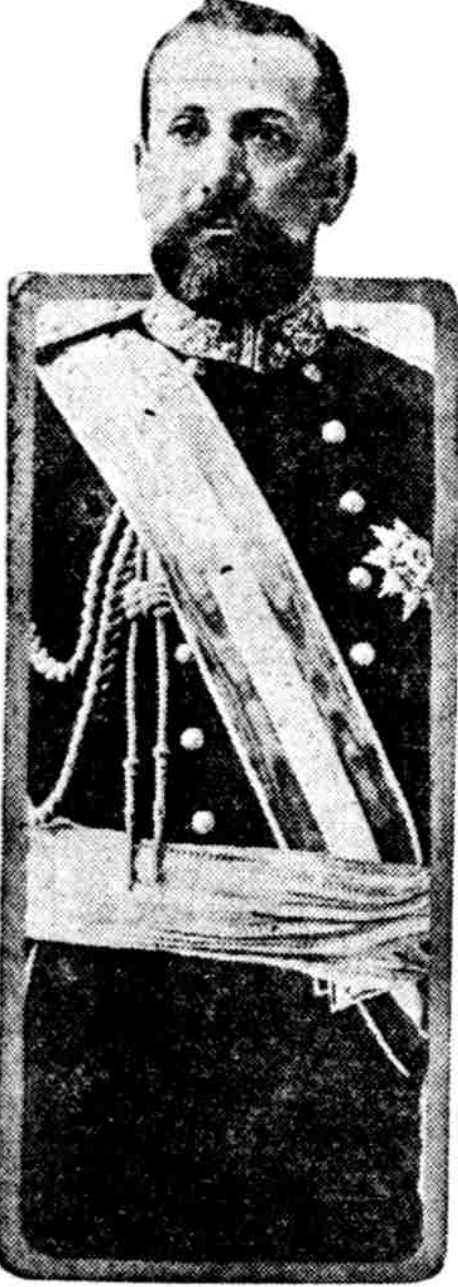

One of the constituents of Eckman's Alternative is calcium (lime), so combined with other ingredients as to be easily assimilated by the average person. To this, in part, is due its widespread success in the treatment of these distressing and disastrous troubles.

By preventing, as well as arresting the ravages of the tubercle bacilli, Eckman's Alternative performs a service, which even some ethical practitioners have acknowledged to their patients. It does not make wholesale claims for it, but our knowledge of what it has done warrants the statement that IT CAN HELP.

It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, hence a trial is safe. Should your druggist be out of it, you can order through him or direct from the makers.

U. S. MARINES IN ALL PARTS OF THE WORLD

They Are Scattered All the Way From Peking to Alaska. Many in Mexico.

"I met 'im all over the world a-doin' all kinds of things. Like landin' 'isselt with a Gatlin' gun to talk to them 'eathen kings."

This Kipling description of "Er Majesty's Jollies" might be applied to day to the marines and soldiers of Uncle Sam, according to the geographical service reports of the War and Navy Departments. They showed that the boys in United States uniforms are scattered from Peking and the Yangtze river to Alaska, and from the Stars and Stripes are still carried in a dozen out-of-the-way places by Uncle Sam's young men.

The greatest numbers of marines and soldiers are doing service in Mexico or along the border. Other posts have been drained to fill up the ranks south of the Rio Grande. But the Stars and Stripes are still carried in a dozen out-of-the-way places by Uncle Sam's young men.

Records of Commandant General Barnett of the Marine Corps, today show the following distribution of marines: Guantanamo, 28 (reduced from 200 for other foreign duty); Nicaragua, 90; Honolulu, 114; Guam, 254; China, 250; as territorial guards, since the war, 1,000 as a permanent garrison; China, 950 as railway guard under the international neutrality agreement; Philippines, 12,600.

General Waterspoon, chief of staff, gave the following figures showing geographical distribution of the foreign army forces: Texas and Mexican border, 22,600; Vera Cruz, 3,800; Alaska, 500; Hawaii, 7,000; Panama, 1,500; soon to be increased by 200 of a regiment (1,600) as a permanent garrison; China, 950 as railway guard under the international neutrality agreement; Philippines, 12,600.

WILL URGE FEDERAL GUN MANUFACTURE

Gardner, Good, and Tavenner Active in Revival of Discussion.

The coming session of Congress will witness a revival of the discussion of Government manufacture of war munitions and armor plate in the widespread campaign over the state of defense in America.

Congressman Gardner, who has called attention to the need of taking intelligent steps to meet conditions, will have powerful support in Congress. It has been widely charged that Krupp in Germany has had much to do with the tremendous burden of preparation for war put on that country. In the same way, it has been charged at times that some of the war scares in this country have been fostered by private interests having fat contracts for war materials.

In support of Government manufacture it will be strongly urged next winter that the way to separate war talk from private business is to have the Government manufacture the supplies and materials needed for the army and navy. Further it will be pointed out that if the United States is to increase the measure of its preparation for the need for Government manufacture is greater than ever.

Congressman Good of Iowa is one of the leaders in the movement for Government manufacture of powder and war materials. He is on the House Appropriations Committee.

Another is Congressman Tavenner of Illinois, who represents the Rock Island district. He advocates Government manufacture of ammunition and war materials generally, and it has become an issue in his campaign.

Two Cyclists Injured, Hit by Automobiles

Edward E. Lawless, 330 Twelfth street northwest, was thrown from his motorcycle in a collision with an automobile driven by George J. Jones at Sixteenth and I streets northwest today and bruised about the head and body. Lawless was taken to the George Washington Hospital, where it was said he would recover.

The motorcycle was demolished. James E. Phillips, twenty-five years old, 122 Twenty-fifth street northwest, was knocked from his bicycle by an automobile at Twenty-second and F streets northwest today and badly hurt about the head. He was taken to Emergency Hospital, where it was said he was suffering from concussion of the brain. The driver of the automobile did not stop after the accident and his identity was not learned by the police.

Lectures on War to Aid Belgian Relief Measures

Pleading for American support for the Belgian people, who are homeless and on the verge of starvation, Dr. N. Monroe Hopkins, of Washington, lectured on the war before a capacity audience at the Belasco Theater yesterday.

Dr. Hopkins witnessed the mobilization of troops in Europe, at that time the pooling of the capital being so strict that it was necessary to present certificates at every turn for identification. While examining guns near the Eiffel Tower, Dr. Hopkins was arrested as a spy, and later he was forced by Germans to repair an automobile that had been captured from the Belgians.

PLEDGE CONVENTION SUPPORT OF 6,000

Holy Name Society Will Work for Success of Baltimore Gathering.

Support of Catholic clergy and laymen for the convention of the Holy Name Archdiocesan Union at Baltimore in May and the parade here next October was pledged by representatives of the 6,000 members of the organization in Washington and vicinity, at a meeting at St. Vincent de Paul's Church last night.

More than 2,000 members of the Third Sunday Brigade of St. Aloysius Church were admitted, and J. H. Doyle, president of the Washington branch, reported on the success of the committee that is working to increase the rolls to 10,000. Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Corrigan and all priests of this city have been enlisted in the campaign.

The Rev. J. D. Daly, of the Church of the Holy Comforter, and the Rev. J. R. Matthews, of St. Cyril's Church, told of the work the clergy was doing for the advancement of the society, and M. J. Weller pleaded for the support of Catholic laymen to assist in the battle for the suppression of the wave of bitterness against the church which, he said, is sweeping the nation.

At St. Martin's Church in January the society will hold its next city convention.
